

Joe Seestadt

Consultant

Joe Seestadt is a Consultant whose passion is to help proven leaders become powerful co-creators.

In addition to his work with Third River, Joe has over 20 years of experience in lean process design and operations, in healthcare and manufacturing settings. He also serves as a lead pastor at a local church in metro Detroit. He has unique experience to help support leaders to navigate the dynamic waters of change management, cost reduction, and growth planning.

Joe has master's degrees in both Business Administration and Divinity, and a bachelor's in Industrial Engineering.

“ Leadership transformation comes from the inside-out. See differently. Serve differently. Make a difference! ”
